PROJECT CALL

October 6-8, 2017 in Berlin

The European Collaborative Housing Award invites collaborative housing projects to share their experiences at the European level. Projects will be selected by an international jury and receive a public recognition during the EXPERIMENTDAYS 17 in Berlin, where they can join together with the international self-organized housing movement in exchanging experiences regarding implemented projects as well as ideas that are emerging in many different cities and regions.

Selected projects will be shortlisted for the World Habitat Awards 2018.
